I've lived in the Minneapolis area since I graduated college, though I'll always remain a country girl at heart having grown up on a farm near Atlantic, Iowa. I am mom to three adult kids and really aiming to get the last one through his senior year of college by May! My best gig right now is being grandma to two adorable toddlers who live close by -- I am lucky to get to see them often.

BONNIE DATTOLI

St. Louis is home. My husband and I enjoy family events. Our grandchildren are already talking about college. (How did they grow up so fast?) I've worked with student loans for 45 of my 48 years with the bank so, hopefully, Grandma can give some advice like "Talk to your school's FAO". There's no better way to end a day than to pause for a sunset.

I really wish I could be meeting you in person, but here it goes.... I live in Jacksonville, Illinois with my husband and our two active & phone addicted teenagers, along with two dogs – one super energetic and one not so much. I love to read, red wine, and eating - as long as I am not the one cooking. Hope you have a fantastic first MASFAP conference & look forward to meeting you in the future!

I live in Rockford, MI, home of the world famous Corner Bar Chili Dog Wall of Fame. I've only managed to eat 6 of the 12 required chili dogs to get my name on the wall, but with a little more practice, my name will soon be there! I am married, with three adult children and three grandsons. Taking advantage of the time at home, we decided to adopt a German Shepherd puppy named Max and two weeks later added his brother Ramsey. Needless to say, with two 6-month old puppies in the house, I can't wait to get back on the road and see you all.
