

MASFAP September 2025 Communication

MASFAP Conference Update

Register NOW for our Annual Conference at <https://www.masfap.org/> (at the right side of the page click "Conference")! This is a must-attend conference for financial aid professionals in Missouri! And as long as the director attends and pays the registration fee, the registration fee is waived for all institutional attendees.

Silent Auction Baskets Needed

MASFAP is once again raising money for The Lake of the Ozarks Idiots Club. This organization is dedicated to uplifting children in need by providing them with essential resources and opportunities to participate in school and community activities.

To help further their mission, we're organizing a silent auction and are seeking basket donations.

Please contact, Alexandria Miller (alexandriam@mohela.com) with the item or basket you would like to contribute for the event.

Register for Cultural Humility Session

The Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Ad-hoc Committee, in conjunction with the Professional Development Committee, is excited to invite you to our upcoming webinar:

Cultivating Cultural Humility for Building Relationships

Tuesday, October 21, 2025 from 10:00 – 11:30 a.m.

H.S. Counselor Workshops

MASFAP's Early Awareness Committee is hosting 12 in-person high school counselor workshops across the state. In addition to the in-person workshops, MASFAP is partnering with MOCAN to also offer virtual workshops for high school counselors.

High school counselors can register for these events on MASFAP's website at: <https://www.masfap.org/workshops>

Please help spread the word and encourage counselors to register for these free trainings!

MASFAP Scholarship Open

MASFAP's Who's Making a Difference Scholarship application is open now until October 1! Spread the word—seniors in high school may apply on My Scholarship Central and here is the direct link to apply:
